THE SOUTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL TRIAL NOTEBOOK

by Jack B. Swerling, Esquire

This is "Jack Swerling's Criminal Notebook". This two volume set contains over 1,200 pages of case synopses in 63 sections. Plus:

- a TABLE OF CASES in each volume,
- a TABLE OF CONTENTS in each volume,
- the complete text of the SOUTH CAROLINA RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE and THE SOUTH CAROLINA RULES OF MAGISTRATE'S COURT in VOLUME 1.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL TRIAL NOTEBOOK (THE NOTEBOOK) expedites the preparation of the defense or prosecution of any criminal case. THE NOTEBOOK digests all of the leading authority in any given area of criminal practice. The cases are outlined from a neutral viewpoint — not favoring the State or the defense.

The set is designed and organized to be an office manual and courtroom notebook. Although THE SOUTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL TRIAL NOTEBOOK is a massive work, each topic is brought quickly to your fingertips through the alphabetical TABLE OF CONTENTS. The TABLE OF CONTENTS serves as a thought index, placing cases and statutes under the headings a lawyer would logically consult.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL TRIAL NOTEBOOK features a complete table of cases so that your research will not be short circuited even if all you have is a case name. Plus, you can use the table of cases to make sure that you have covered all of the pertinent issues raised by a particular case.

The case summaries are organized within each topic to help the reader find a short answer in a hurry. THE NOTEBOOK provides a comprehensive overview, but it is not intended to be exhaustive of the topics covered. This set is a reference point to help you get your bearings and proceed with confidence.

This is a MUST publication for every attorney, solicitor, or judge who practices criminal law in South Carolina. Use the order form on this brochure to order your copy today!
